The Printed Catalogue, 1900-1950

It would be rash to promise that the Printed Catalogue of Accessions from 1900 to 1950 will be published during 1954, but we hope that it will be. Provisionally the price has been fixed at £2 5s. 0d. a copy, cloth (£1 17s. 6d. in card covers). Current Library Subscribers will, however, have the privilege of purchasing a copy at a considerably reduced price. A prospectus and order form will be sent to readers in due course.

As readers of last year's Bulletin will know, the publication of this catalogue has had to be heavily subsidised and we expressed our indebtedness for the generous help received for this purpose from a number of Trusts. Since then we have received generous assistance from the Aston Charities Trust, whose grant completed the thousand pounds needed in addition to such sums as the Library already had in hand for the work. It was known that the sum thus raised would still leave a considerable amount of the cost to be met from sales and such further help as we might receive. The Aston Charities Trust, in making the grant just mentioned, made also a generous challenge promise of fifty guineas if the whole sum needed could be raised, within two years, from advance orders, gifts, or both. There remains approximately £700 to be found in this way; and we would appeal to readers for help towards this further final sum. An advance order will help, an advance order at the full price will help more, this and a donation will help most of all. Even before making any appeal we have received several such gifts to help us on our way. We have also, through the good offices of the American Association of Theological Libraries, received a large number of advance orders and enquiries from American Libraries.

September Closing

That the Library should be closed in the summer for the month of September as well as for the month of August is a considerable inconvenience to readers, and the Trustees are not unmindful of the inconvenience caused. But, with a small staff, it is almost the only way to find time to get certain essential work done. In 1954, also, it is intended to re-decorate the Lending Department during the summer, and time for this must be found, as far as possible, while the Library is closed. As a provisional arrangement it has been arranged for the Library to be closed from 1st August to 19th September. We hope that this half-way measure will reduce inconvenience. We hope, too, that it will not be upset by unforeseen circumstances or by delays in completing the work that is planned.

Book Loans Abroad

From time to time we are asked to extend membership of the Library to include readers outside Great Britain. It is not a service for which we are likely to be often asked or one which we should wish greatly to extend. But where it is likely to be useful the Trustees have decided that books may be lent abroad under certain restrictions. It is not proposed to lend the older, rarer and more valuable books printed before the Nineteenth Century. Nor will books be lent when they are in such frequent demand that their longer absence from the Library would cause serious inconvenience to other readers. There must, too, be a satisfactory postal service to the country where a reader wishes to receive books; and normally books will only be sent by such book-post or other printed-paper service as avoids the necessity of customs declarations and other time-wasting procedures. Fuller particulars will be sent on request.

Gifts to the Library

We are glad to acknowledge gifts of books to the Library from the Baptist Historical Society of America, the Baptist Union, the Baptist Union of Scotland, the Central Postal Mission, the Congregational Union, Essex County Library, the General Assembly of Unitarian and Free Christian Churches, Glasgow University Library, the Guildhall Library, the Library of Congress, London University Library, the Northamptonshire Record Society, the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen, the Royal Agricultural Society of England, Mr. Melvin Arnold, Rev. Lost Portions of the Reliquiae Baxterianae

As students of later Puritanism are well aware, the Baxter MSS. from which Matthew Sylvester printed the Reliquiae Baxterianae of 1696 is one of the valued possessions of Dr. Williams's Library. Certain portions were apparently wanting from the MS. at the time that it came to the Library in about the year 1733. But there are also certain portions which came to the Library but have disappeared since. That they came to the Library is evident from the fact that W. H. Black, the antiquarian, included them in the catalogue he prepared for the Trustees between 1856 and 1862. But later, in 1864, they were marked in the catalogue by the Librarian, J. H. Ryland, as "not found."

The location of these missing portions has since been traced. It would seem that W. H. Black was in the habit of taking MSS. home with him while working on the catalogue for the Trustees and that he failed to return the missing portions; at all events in the catalogue of the sale of his library, after his death in 1871, there is an entry "Baxterianae Reliquiae." A few years later, in 1880, certain Baxter manuscripts were bought for the British Museum and are now entered as Egerton 2570. That these are the portions marked "not found" in 1864 is clear from the inclusion with them of notes in Black's handwriting and from their exact correspondence with the portions entered in the Library Catalogue of MSS. prepared by Black and subsequently noted as missing.

The importance of this re-discovery of the missing portions will be plain from the fact that neither F. J. Powicke nor J. M. Lloyd Thomas made any serious use of the missing portions in their work on Baxter, though both did apparently learn of the existence of Egerton 2570, but in each case too late to consult it to any extent.

The matter has recently been brought to the notice of the Trustees of the British Museum; and, while in accordance with the Museum's normal procedure, they could not permit the return to Dr. Williams's Library of the missing portions of the manuscript, they have most generously promised the free gift of a photostat copy of them, so that students visiting Dr. Williams's Library to consult Baxter records will not need to go to and fro between the two institutions to consult the sundered parts of the Reliquiae.

For tracing the missing portions to their present home in the Museum we are indebted to one of the Trustees, Dr. Geoffrey F. Nuttall. We are further indebted to him for preparing a tabulated list of the precise portions of the Reliquiae (a) in Dr. Williams's Library, (b) in the British Museum, and (c) wanting from both collections. The details are too intricate for inclusion here, but a duplicated copy has been prepared and may be had from the Library (price 1s.). Dr. Nuttall hopes also to contribute an article on the subject to the Journal of Ecclesiastical History.

Friends of Dr. Williams's Library

The annual lecture in 1954 is to be given by Prof. R. I. Aaron, on Tuesday, October 19th.

The Society welcomes to its roll of Vice-Presidents, the Rt. Rev. Mgr. J. M. T. Barton and Professor Norman Sykes.

Secretary and Librarian	Rev. ROGER THOMAS, M.A.
Deputy-Librarian	Miss INEZ R. ELLIOTT, A.L.A.
Senior Library Assistant	Mr. MICHAEL HENRY, B.A.

The Trust includes a number of benefactions for which the founder, the Rev. Daniel Williams, D.D. (b. 1643, d. 1716), made provision in his will. The most important of these is now the Library, which has been greatly enlarged and developed since his time.

Besides the Library, the benefactions include grants of money to poor ministers, and to widows of ministers; grants of books to ministers; bursaries to undergraduate students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry at the University of Glasgow; post-graduate divinity scholarships for students for the Protestant Dissenting Ministry in approved Theological Colleges.

Provision is also made by the Trust for special Ministers in Wales to do missionary and evangelising work in aid of the weaker churches, or in districts where there is no regular ministry.

The Trustees also give bursaries and scholarships to be held at the Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. They contribute to the maintenance of the Dr. Williams' School for Girls (Secondary) at Dolgelley, North Wales. For information as to the institutions named in this paragraph, applications should be made to them locally, and not to the Secretary of the Trust.

GRANTS TO DISSENTING MINISTERS.—Sums ranging usually from £10 to £20 not in aid of inadequate salaries, but to meet special emergencies or to help in education of children. Retired ministers are not eligible.

Part postage is also paid in suitable cases on books borrowed from the Library by country readers who are nonconformist ministers. Further particulars may be obtained on application.

GRANTS TO WIDOWS OF MINISTERS.—These are made for the same purposes as those to ministers. The amount available for these grants is less than for those to ministers.

GRANTS OF BOOKS (called in the founder's will "Bibles and good practical books to be given to the poor").—These grants are made only in June of each year. Applications may be made at any time up to the middle of April in each year; if any grant is made the books are sent out in the following July. The books given are intended to help ministers in their studies. They are new books, and are not given from the Library.

GLASGOW BURSARIES (Undergraduate) tenable at Glasgow University, up to the value of £150 per annum for 3 or 4 years.—Prospectus forwarded on application. Candidates must be of South Britain. Applications for Bursaries must be sent in not later than March 1st in each year.

DIVINITY SCHOLARSHIPS of the value of £150 per annum for 2 years tenable at any approved Theological College or University.—Applications before June 1st in each year. Prospectus may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

For all the foregoing, inquiries must be made of the SECRETARY, Dr. Williams's Trust, who will supply further information as required.

Dr. Williams's Library

14, GORDON SQUARE, LONDON, W.C.1.

The Library is primarily a theological library intended for the use of ministers, students, and other persons engaged in the study of philosophy, theology, ecclesiastical history, the history of religion and kindred subjects; it will also be found useful for the study of history, sociology, the history of language and literature, and classical literature both ancient and modern. The Library does NOT supply fiction, or books on mathematics, music, natural history, physical science, or medicine; nor does it supply elementary text books or class books.

Conditions of Admission

Books may be consulted by persons over twenty-one years of age, duly introduced and guaranteed in accordance with the regulations laid down by the Trustees.

READERS' TICKETS. Applicants are admitted to read in the Library free of charge.

BORROWERS' TICKETS. An annual subscription of £1 1s. 0d. will entitle a reader to borrow up to three books at a time. Books on loan are returnable within one month but may be renewed if not required by another reader. If a book becomes overdue (without having been renewed by the last date for its return) a charge will be made of sixpence for the first, sixpence for the second and a shilling for each subsequent week or part of a week that it is overdue. Readers having books sent to them are required to pay postage in advance.

Copies of the regulations, guarantee forms, forms of application for admission, may be had on application personally or by post.

Library Hours

The Library is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., except Saturday, when it closes at 1 p.m. The Library is closed from the Thursday before Good Friday to the following Tuesday, inclusive; during the whole months of August and September; from Christmas Eve to New Year's Day, inclusive; and on Bank Holidays.* The Reading Room is also closed for the Quarterly Meetings of Trustees and for the Annual Meeting of the Friends of Dr. Williams's Library.

Catalogues

The following printed catalogues are out of print but may be borrowed from the Library:—

Vol. I.—Author catalogue of books placed in the Library down to 1841.

Vol. II.—Author catalogue of tracts, pamphlets, sermons, etc., placed in the Library down to 1841.

Vol. III.—Author catalogue of books, pamphlets, etc., placed in the Library from 1842 to 1885.

Vol. IV.—Ditto. 1900 to 1932.

There is no printed catalogue for the years 1886 to 1899.

Complete author and subject catalogues, to the present date, may be seen at the Library.

* The Library will re-open this year on September 20th, 1954.

Form for Bequests to the Library

I GIVE and bequeath to the Trustees at my death of the charity known as Dr. Daniel Williams's Charity of Gordon Square in the County of London the sum of £ free of all duty and I declare that the receipt of any three of such Trustees shall be a sufficient discharge for the said legacy. I direct such Trustees to stand possessed of the said sum of £ upon trust to apply the same in their discretion in the purchase of books to be given by them to the said charity to be held as an addition to its library or to apply the same in assisting the maintenance of the said library and I DECLARE that the said sum of £ is not to merge in the funds of the said charity but is to be held upon a separate and independent charitable trust.

An alternative form of bequest for use where a testator is giving a capital sum which is to be retained as an endowment fund may be had on application to the Secretary.

FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY

Support for Dr. Williams's Library is urgently needed. Post-war costs have made it impossible to maintain an adequate library service without additional resources, and the facilities offered by the Library for research students have long stood in need of development. To meet these needs the FRIENDS OF DR. WILLIAMS'S LIBRARY was founded in 1946, and the society invites all who are interested to collaborate in its work.

Full particulars together with forms for the payment of subscriptions by Banker's Order and under Deed of Covenant may be had on application from the Secretary at the Library.
